

Miss School - Miss Out

All parents or carers have a legal responsibility to ensure their child regularly attends school. Regular attendance gives the greatest opportunity to learn new things and develop their skills and friendships and is an important step towards reaching each child's full potential.

School does not authorise holidays during term time, and will follow government and local council guidelines to ensure the best outcomes for our children.